

LET THE CURSES COME FORWARD

She said, "Something is feeling weird. Something is really bothering me. I don't know what to do."

YAHWEH GIVES IT:

What could be feeling weird by the taste of a cutting from a world-level prophet? It is already coming forward. Please see it; I have started pushing out the curses. And no one can stop Yahweh. No one. She is feeling My anger, and I will bring great torment that will never have an ending. My power has come. My power has come. And pushing out great torment is a sign.

No one who is joined with you in covenant will remember what it's like to be cut off or without that prophet surging infiltration. They will have a comfort with what is coming into their spirit. And when a cut-off person no longer has that power, they feel as if a part of them is no longer. That is the root of that person feeling weird. I am no longer letting that person drink from your mantle, and they now have a leaving within, as if someone is gone.

Imagine what is in your mantle: provision, protection, great power, the surging of Yahweh from the Throne Room. Can you feel what it's like without that from memory? I remember you said it was like feeling around, trying to figure out what I was saying. But imagine others taking from your mantle, thinking that it's by their human strength that they have such and such. I will make sure they know what they had, came from Yahweh, surging in your way.

And let the torment lead.
