

“TRUMP IS AFRAID” —YAHWEH

YAHWEH SAYS IT:

Servant Seersgate, all the world looks at Trump, wondering if he is truly the way he said in his campaign. The work of a president wanes and turns into a plan different from the original one based on outside influences. But what if the current leader moves into his leading way with a adverse person, not someone who carries the president’s actual intent? Would there be good counsel in the president’s frame with a party member who is not using Trump’s best interests in his seeing?

Look at the man who slices up the government. Trump wanted to bring greater approval by “stripping the economic fat,” purging away what would look as a wasteful addition. But pay attention. What is wasteful in the way of human living? Shouldn’t there be a stripping of pornographic materials entering the nation? Shouldn’t there be a removal of perpetrators who traffic people? Shouldn’t the United States learn how the “united” way should work? Are the states united? Is there true freedom to be any race and not be docked for that? Should it matter if a person works for the government? Can the streamlining plan bring a new, updated plan that merges areas?

Washington, D.C., is built and maintained literally with governmental outlets. President Trump, your goal is to build a business model for the state under the laborer, yet you expect the stripped-away worker to fund your businesses and those of your coworker who partners with you in government stripping. How will the businesses your coworker governs maintain their weight if the employees carrying the government work are stripped away? Is the taxpayer wealth that great of a harvest to funnel through as your own using businesses?

What would you do if you learned that your coworker in government stripping is very dangerous? The president's coworker has a greater interest than stripping away government workers. President Trump, you think you can control him and don't want to look like you are being overruled, but you are not in the leadership position. No longer are you the governing leader. You yielded it to your coworker who strips away government workers.

They say they can take this portion of governing territory to gauge their spiritual strength. But they take away natural workers to prove to other nations they plan to leverage later that they can one day govern the end days.

Pay attention. Never give or delegate governing leadership to someone under you in your capacity the ability to lead by a coup. A coup doesn't always present itself with guns, soldiers, and great battles. A coup could be when someone takes a piece of territory and takes more until they have greater governing weight.

You, Trump, have an enemy within your government. Your own team isn't fully yielded to serving your nation. And one day, it will be what you fear. The current nation you govern will fear even Third World countries, just as your coworker is aiming to be: the head of all.

A Special Note

Sometimes, Yahweh doesn't say "an" when needed but would use an "a." It's not a grammatical error but a note of the actual way spoken.
